DONTOKOIMINAMI

Our aims

No matter the subject, we will take whatever time is necessary to address concerns together with our users. We will see no problem as impossible to solve.

By coordinating existing services and quickly addressing individual needs in every way possible, we will become a community mainstay that helps both disabled people and their families live in the region with peace of mind.

We will view communication, cooperation, and exchange as essential elements of community development.

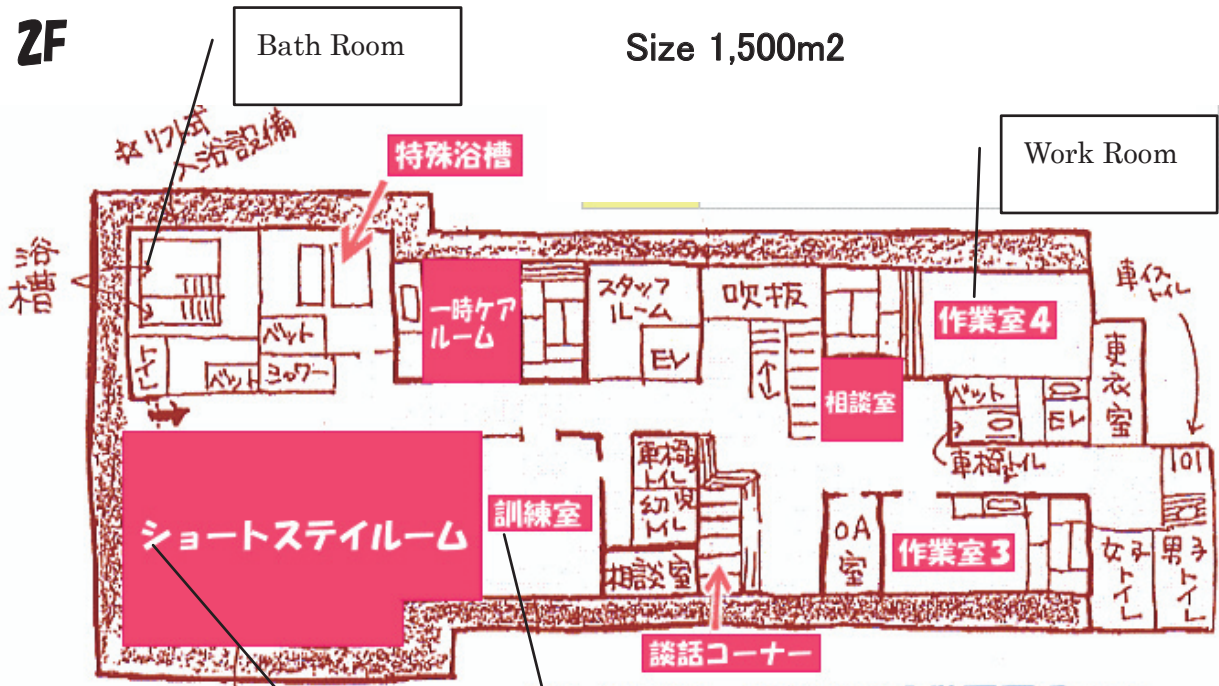

We will value the individual, and support each person’s personal choices and decisions.
